CHANGE!

“If a safe place to live is going to make the difference between sobriety and relapse then you should consider a structured sober living environment designed to surround you with available recovery options.”

What does it mean to be a resident at Transformation House?

Our sober house will provide recovering guests with an alcohol and drug-free environment. It is a transitional bridge between treatment and independence where people can be successful and accountable to themselves as well as their sobriety.

HOUSE EXPECTATIONS

- ❖ To remain drug and alcohol-free; through periodic testing
- ❖ Gainfully employed, actively seeking work, in treatment, attending school
- ❖ Ability to live in a shared living environment
- ❖ Attend three 12-step meetings (AA/NA) a week and one mandatory house meeting
- ❖ Personal cleanliness and ability to clean up after yourself
- ❖ Do chores on a daily basis
- ❖ Abide by the set curfew
- ❖ Pay residential fees in a timely fashion
- ❖ Willingness to follow rules and regulations

We will help you to achieve long term sobriety through a stable, structured living environment.

It is worth it! We promise

Secure Your Future
by taking this next step in your recovery process

We are proud to offer you this opportunity to take back your life. Nobody knows what you need more than you do so please make this one of the best decisions you have ever made.

There are too many people out there doing the same old thing, you could be one of the millions of people who do not go back to that life and move on to a better more valued and appreciated way of life. Come and let us give you a clean and safe place to do it.

We thank you for your interest

We encourage you to call us if you or a loved one is interested in or have questions about our sober living home. Your information will not be sold or given away. For faster assistance, we encourage you to call today to see what's available.
